

CONCERNING WHIRL FOR SCOUT FUNDS

Committee Resumes Work Satisfied Results Will Total Desired Amount.

Three teams went to work with renewed vim and enthusiasm and campaign of far into the night all over the city. Commissioner Housman said the canvassers were in the highest spirits and most supremely confident of accomplishing their task within the allotted time. He received a number of reports this morning indicating great activity and success on the part of the campaigners. A number of letters containing checks were received at Boy Scout headquarters today, and these sums will go to swell the total and augment the activities of the campaigners.

When questioned today on the outlook, Mr. Housman said: "The prospects are as bright as they could be. Washington is responding nobly. We want to give everybody an opportunity to become a benefactor of this great movement which is still in its infancy and from which too much cannot be expected in the way of better boys, better men, better citizenship, reduced juvenile criminality and a stronger and wealthier nation."

"We probably could get $30,000 from a handful of rich men, but we have seen the merit and value of the Boy Scout movement demonstrated, but we prefer to get small contributions from a great number of average people so that we may have their interest and moral support in our work."

Strong For Pledges.

"We are not asking for $30,000 cash, and would not take it if we could get it. We prefer pledges to cash. When a man gives a contribution to a movement his interest usually lags from the time the check is written, but when he gives his pledge to pay one fourth in cash and the other three fourths in three quarterly payments, we have him interested, and we are on his mind until he makes the last payment."

"We have enough cash right now to pay off the indebtedness in Washington and start the scouts with a clean slate. What we want from the citizens of Washington for subscriptions to the Boy Scout movement. Of course, if we cannot get the pledges we will take the cash, but we prefer the pledges."

CITIZENS URGED TO BEAUTIFY TAKOMA

Mayor and Council Suggest Planting of Trees on Parkings Adjacent to New Roads.

In response to suggestions from the mayor and council, residents of Takoma Park are co-operating in beautifying the parkings adjacent to the new system of concrete highways which have recently been constructed throughout the municipality, and it is expected that by spring all of the parkings will be planted with trees and shrubs with grass.

The trees probably will be oaks, and the council has suggested that they be planted not less than thirty feet apart. The new streets now being used are Takoma, Chestnut, Holly, Oak, Maple, Willow, and Spruce, which, with Carroll avenue, include the majority of the principal thoroughfares of the town. Carroll avenue has been macadamized for some years.

The council last night ordered the laying of a cement sidewalk on Holly avenue from Tulip avenue to the corporation line, the work to be done at the earliest practicable time.

A hearing was held at last night's session at which interested property owners, who will have to pay for the improvement, were given the opportunity to speak. The only protest was from Mr. Poler, whose property is not affected.

December 12 was fixed as the date for a hearing to consider the advisability of laying a cement walk on Maple avenue abutting lots 17 to 23. G. S. Gibson, Karl O. Truett, J. A. Ridgway, M. H. Spencer, and Mr. Hohmann urged the improvement.

Those present at last night's meeting were Mayor S. W. Jenkins, H. P. Taff, and W. W. Dyer, and Superintendent of Public Works E. E. Blodgett.

DANIELS SILENT ON CRITICISM OF NAVY

Is the navy the "ham bone of politicians?"

Is the German navy today twice as great and twice as efficient as ours at half the cost?

Is politics ruining the navy and is a business administration instead of politics a prime necessity for the navy?

These and other questions are sharply raised by assertions credited to Capt. Yates Sterling, a prominent navy officer, in published reports of a patriotic banquet in Philadelphia last night.

Captain Sterling, if quoted correctly, asserted the navy was strangled and prostrated by politics and the less political interference and bureaucracy, declared it was inadequate, and that Congress, playing politics, had given it navy yards it didn't want and types of ships it didn't need.

In short, Captain Sterling is reported to have raked the navy and the administration of the navy and at with small shot, large shot, and a liberal admixture of verbal torpedoes.

Captain Sterling is an able naval officer and is the same Captain Sterling who last winter told the House Naval Committee about the astonishing defects of the submarine fleet. At that time there was amazement that he had talked out in meeting so plainly. Since then, however, prominent submarine reforms have been set on foot.

The question about the Navy Department today is whether Captain Sterling will be disciplined.

Secretary Daniels was asked what he would do about it.

"I haven't seen it," smiled the Secretary, after glancing at the headlines and tossing a clipping containing the speech on his desk.

Indications are that the officer, if chastened at all, will be merely admonished to be careful in the future.

Boy Scout Committee Outlines Its Budget For Next Three Years Here

In Detailed Statement, Board Explains What Is To Be Done With Funds That Are Being Raised Here in Campaign For $30,000.

An official statement, signed by the members of the Boy Scout finance committee, explaining in detail the whys and wherefores of the campaign for $30,000 in three days, which is now underway, was given by the committee to the Washington public today. This statement outlines in detail the budget of the Boy Scouts for the next three years giving, giving a statement of the amount and purpose of every intended expenditure of this money. The statement follows:

TO THE WASHINGTON PUBLIC:

The undersigned, being the finance committee of the Boy Scout Association in your city, will authorize all expenditures made by the local council and wish to announce at this time that the $30,000 which it is planned to raise in this three-day financial campaign will be used first to pay $4,899.13 of back debt; that $5,000 will be used in the next six months for all expenses in an active campaign to increase the boy scout membership in this city to 5,000 members.

Ten thousand dollars will be expended in the twelve months ending June 30, 1917, in active work to increase the membership to 10,000 boys, and $10,000 more will be spent up to June 30, 1918, to increase the boy scout membership in this city to 15,000. If we are successful in raising the $30,000 nothing more will be asked of the Washington public for boy scout work for the next three years.

It should be borne in mind that to increase the boy scout enrollment as rapidly as we propose means the employment of high class men who will give their entire time to the work. This is an absolute necessity because these troops can only be organized at night when the boys are not in school, and the hours of the day are used by these executives to obtain the volunteers who act as scoutmasters, assistant scoutmasters, and merit badge examiners. Of the latter we now have fifty-one, men who are experts in their respective lines, in business, in the medical profession, and in scientific work, who examine the boys when they have been prepared by their scoutmasters and the scout executives for the various tests which they must pass in order to obtain the promotion that the boys themselves seek to obtain.

If you are deeply interested in the boy life of your city and our future citizenship we know there is no better investment that we can recommend to your consideration.

The expenditures are herewith itemized, and we ask the careful scrutiny of the thinking public of all our proposed expenditures.

RICE HOSPITAL TO BE HAVEN OF REST

Widow Who Will Give $1,000,000 Intends to Seek Those Near Breakdown.

NEW YORK, Nov. 23.—Mrs. Isaac L. Rice will spend more than $1,000,000 upon the hospital for convalescents which she will erect in memory of her husband, the submarine boat manufacturer who died on November 2. One of Mrs. Rice's ideas is to provide a place to rest for those whose nerves have been strained to the breaking point by the hurry and noise of New York life. Mrs. Rice has done much to muffle the city's sounds as president of the Society for the Suppression of Unnecessary Noises.

"There are 50 many people in this city," said Mrs. Rice at the Ansonia, "who might be saved if they could get rest in time—people for whom our mode of life is too wearing. Teachers, for instance, I know two teachers whose health was not quite broken who might have been rejuvenated if we had had a place like the Rice Memorial for Convalescents. It is for people like that, who are giving way in the hurry and noise of New York, that I shall see that they go to the Rice hospital for a good rest and a new lease of life."

To Give More Than Money.

"I am going to make the hospital a real memorial by giving every day afternoon my own work to it. I don't think that just giving money would make a real memorial—that isn't enough."

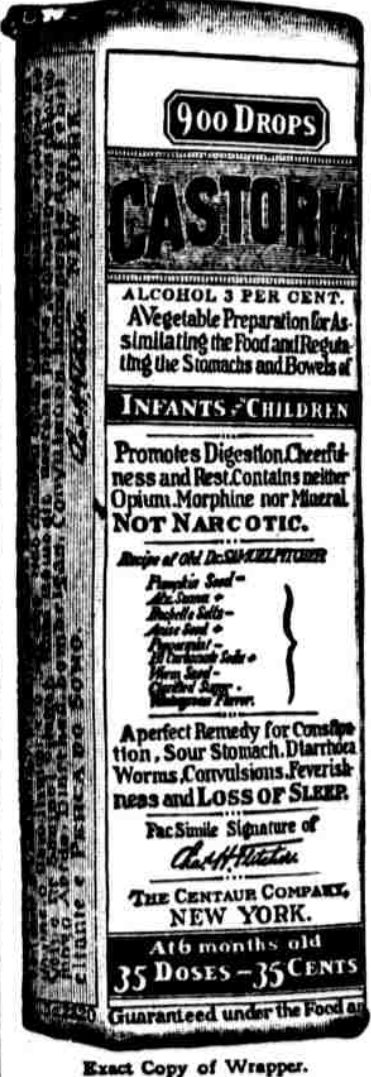

Mrs. Rice said that her six children would help her in watching over the hospital.

Decide Final Plans Today.

The final plans for the Rice memorial will be decided on at meetings this afternoon at both the Rice and the Ansonia. So far the tentative directors selected, besides Isaac L. Rice and Isaac L. Barnett are Mrs. Rice's brother, Lorenz R. Schwerin, and Prof. Morton Arendt of Columbia.

Mrs. Rice has decided on another memorial to her husband in the library of Bates College in Lewiston, Me., which gave Mr. Rice the degree of doctor of laws. She surprised President George C. Chase of Bates, who called yesterday by telegraph, that she had decided to give to Bates Mr. Rice's collection of 1,500 volumes of French memoirs and to have Mr. Herts design a special Rice memorial room for them in the college library to be called the Isaac L. Rice memorial room.

CHARGE WOMAN WITH TRYING JAIL DELIVERY

NEW YORK, Nov. 23.—Love sometimes laughs at locksmiths, and likewise at prison bars. Perhaps Miss Annie Cass, pretty and twenty-six, thought of this when she tried to free her sweetheart, F. J. Taylor, from the Bronx prison.

Miss Cass is now in a cell herself thinking matters over, and charged by the police with attempted jail delivery. She is accused of supplying Taylor with implements to effect his escape.

The police say the jail breaking was to have been attempted last night, as the bars of Taylor's cell were found sawed through, while Miss Cass was waiting for him near the prison.

Taylor was arrested October 7 by Policeman Cronin charged with burglary, and held in $4,000 bail.

His cell was on the second floor. About 9 o'clock last night a keeper discovered that two bars had been sawed through, and then put up. Detectives Tierney and Kelly investigated and found a small leather grip containing a hack saw with a dozen blades, left with Taylor by Miss Cass, according to the police.

The detectives, after quizzing him, searched the neighborhood. At 9 o'clock they found Miss Cass on the corner. They questioned her and then confronted her with Taylor. She admitted that she knew him, and had called to see him several days ago.

The young woman was then taken to the Bronx detentive bureau, where she was put through a four-hour examination. She admitted she had packed the grip, but said she had put only wearing apparel in it.

DEFENSE URGED IN GEORGETOWN DEBATE

Majority of Speakers In Open Contest Favor Greater Preparedness.

The first of a series of open debates was held last evening by the Junior Law School of Georgetown University Law School. Each speaker was allowed to speak three minutes on the affirmative or negative of the subject.

Resolved, That the present armamentations are sufficient to provide an adequate national defense.

Since many members of the society were privileged to offer arguments on the subject, it was difficult to render a decision, but it was apparent that the majority of the speakers favored increased appropriations for better national defenses.

A committee, consisting of John M. Devin, W. D. French, and Francis Needham, has been appointed by President Hogan to select subjects, debaters, and judges. Thomas H. Healy and John J. O'Leary were elected as the society representatives to arrange for debates with the senior society.

The Carroll Law Club, at its meeting Friday evening, will debate on the following subject: "Resolved, That the La Follette amendment is not repeated."

Unnecessary Now.

DAVIS-KELLY PARSON SILENCED FOR TRIAL

Must Answer Superiors for Marrying Heiress to Cabaret Dancer.

WILMINGTON, Del., Nov. 23.—The Rev. Henry Carr, of Elk Mills, Md., admitted that he had been temporarily silenced as minister of the Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ, Latter Day Saints, for marrying "Al" Davis and Eugene Kelly. He will be placed on trial in Philadelphia within a month before the Rev. Homer T. Griffiths, of Columbus, Ohio, in charge of the eastern mission of the church.

"This meets with my favor," the marrying parson declared. "I was imposed upon when I married this pair. I was led to believe that Davis was the innocent party in his recent divorce case. The only interest I have in this is from a ministerial standpoint."

He declines having called on Mrs. Kelly while he was in New York on Saturday and Sunday.

No Wonder.

"You say she treats you like a dog?" "I don't say anything of the sort. When I see how she treats that Boston bull of hers, I wish she would."—Judge.

Stole Chickens 15 Years Ago, Is Tried on Return

NEW YORK, Nov. 23.—Isaac Grucker, forty-eight years old, a butcher, pleaded guilty at Minerva, L. I., to stealing half a dozen chickens November 10, 1900. Grucker jumped a bail bond for $2,000 and disappeared, being arrested almost fifteen years to the day after the theft. Judge Tierney listened to his plea for mercy and suspended sentence.

Had Suffered For Over Eight Years

Doctors Advised an Operation but Simple Remedy Made It Unnecessary

For over eight years Mr. U. S. G. Hemry, 806 East 6th St., Oklahoma City, had suffered with stomach and liver trouble until finally he could no longer stand the pain. He says: "The doctors told me nothing but an operation would give me relief. I decided to first try Fruitola and Traxo, which relieved me of a quantity of gall stones and I have no further pain or trouble from my old complaint. I would not take $500.00 for what your remedies have done for me."

Fruitola, as the name implies, is a pure fruit oil, combined with certain harmless salts, and acts as a lubricant on the intestinal parts, softening the congested masses, disintegrating the hardened particles that cause so much suffering and expelling the accumulation to the patient's great relief. Traxo acts on the liver and kidneys, stimulates the flow of gastric juices to aid digestion and removes bile from the general circulation. It is a splendid tonic and serves to build up and restore the weakened run-down system.

Fruitola and Traxo are prepared in the Pinus laboratories at Monticello, Ill., and arrangements have been made to supply them through representative druggists. In Washington they can be obtained at O'Donnell's, 904 F street northwest.
